As a symbol of legal authority and worthiness as a police officer to serve and protect the people from whom they derived the power and authority to enforce laws of the land without fear or favor; oversee the general welfare of the people; and, ensure that peace and order is maintained at all times, ever mindful that the police is the protector of the weak, defender of the innocent and advocate of human rights. It is reminder of their fidelity and dedication to duty expected of them as a public servant to maintain the dignity of their character at all times and to strenuously enforce by example, a steady obedience to the laws of the land. Inside the PNP Seal are the virtues of Service, Honor and Justice, as a reminder to render the highest form of public service for our fellowmen, serve the citizenry with the commitment of sacrifice and willingness to die in service of God, Country and People.
