Upon the declaration by the WHO of pandemic on March 12, 2020, the government prompted to undertake stringent measures to address the problem. Aforementioned Philippine National Police (PNP) personnel worked hand in hand to carry out the tasks of maintenance of peace and order; control of the movement of people; protection of government vital installations; and protection of business establishments despite the danger of contracting the disease themselves. These brave men and women of the PNP courageously faced the challenge of defeating the invisible enemy (COVID-19), rightfully deserved a heroic recognition for their acts of bravery which contributed to the attainment of a peaceful and orderly community throughout the implementation of the Enhanced Community Quarantine. Their unselfish desire, devotion to duty and self sacrifice resulted to remarkable accomplishment worthy of emulation, an act worth sharing exemplary to every member of the PNP as well to each member of the society, a source of pride for the PNP.

for noteworthy acts of heroism above and beyond the call of duty as frontliners of the Laguna Provincial JTF CV Shield during the implementation of Enhanced Community Quarantine throughout CALABARZON from March 17, 2020 to May 15, 2020 to prevent the spread of the deadly Novel Corona Virus (2019-nCov) also known as COVID-19, a highly contagious disease that claimed lives globally. Upon the declaration by the WHO of pandemic on March 12, 2020, the government prompted to undertake stringent measures to address the problem. Aforementioned Philippine National Police (PNP) personnel worked hand in hand to carry out the tasks of maintenance of peace and order; control of the movement of people; protection of government vital installations; and protection of business establishments despite the danger of contracting the disease themselves. These brave men and women of the PNP courageously faced the challenge of defeating the invisible enemy (COVID-19), rightfully deserved a heroic recognition for their acts of bravery which contributed to the attainment of a peaceful and orderly community throughout the implementation of the Enhanced Community Quarantine. Their unselfish desire, devotion to duty and self sacrifice resulted to remarkable accomplishment worthy of emulation, an act worth sharing exemplary to every member of the PNP as well to each member of the society, a source of pride for the PNP.
